

Teri G. Fontenot, M.B.A.

Teri G. Fontenot is the president and chief executive officer of Woman's Hospital, Baton Rouge, LA, the largest free-standing women's hospital in the country. Her education background includes a degree with honors in accounting from the University of Mississippi and an M.B.A. from Northeast Louisiana University. Teri is also a certified public accountant and a Diplomate of the American College of Healthcare Executives.

In addition to her leadership role at Woman's Hospital, Ms. Fontenot is active in civic and professional organizations at the local, regional, and national level. Her current appointments include:

- American Hospital Association Board;
- Chairman, Hospital Billing and Collection Service, Inc., Newcastle, DE;
- Member of the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta;
- National Institutes of Health Advisory Committee on Research on Women's Health;
- Louisiana State University System Research and Technology Foundation Board;
- Louisiana Commission on Perinatal Care and Infant Mortality.

Ms. Fontenot was the 2000 Chair of the Greater Baton Rouge Chamber of Commerce and was Chair of Louisiana Hospital Association in 2001. She was named one of the 25 most influential women in Baton Rouge by the Baton Rouge Business Report and received the YWCA's 1997 Woman of Achievement Award.